

The free press, the truth, and making a difference.

New Cambridge Observer's Anita Harris writes that the free press—alternative or traditional—can make a huge difference in peoples' lives simply by reporting the truth.