

Got a question for Cambridge Councillor Cheung?

Frances Yun, founder of a Harvard/MIT startup called “Six Questions” invites Cantabrigians to suggest queries for “the fantastically accomplished” third-term Cambridge City Councillor Leland Cheung (left)

Cheung, the first Asian-American to serve on the Council, will answer six questions—submitted by Friday, January 16 and selected by a variety of methods—on video. The video will be posted at “Six Questions” within three days.

According to its Website, Six Questions was founded in 2013 to provide “a platform for community-driven Q&A events that allows individuals to engage the public and connect in an authentic, personal way. Every week, Six Questions features a different expert and crowd-source questions from the public.”

For more information or to submit questions, please go to:

<http://www.sixquestions.co/i/leland-cheung-cambridge-city-councillor>.

—Anita M. Harris

Anita Harris is a writer and communications consultant based in Cambridge, MA. New Cambridge Observer is a publication of the Harris Communications Group, an award-winning PR and digital marketing firm.