

Italian Life Science Innovators to present at Venture Cafe, Cambridge, Oct. 22

Our friend Christa Bleyeben of Mass Global Partners and the Italian Trade Agency cordially invite New Cambridge Observer readers and others to “Discover 13 of Italy’s most Innovative early stage life science companies developing therapeutics, devices and tools.”

Registration and Networking: 3:00 PM

Company pitches: 3:30-5:00 PM

Networking at Venture Cafe: Italian Life Science Night: 5:00-7:00 PM

Participating Italian Companies

- Abiel – recombinant collagenases for use in regenerative medicine research and cell therapy
- Cell Dynamics – real time visualization of cells in culture
- egoHealth – wearable sterilization device for stethoscopes
- Grademi – device to diagnose specific diseases using erythrocyte sedimentation rate
- GreenBone – biomimetic (resorbable) implants, initially for non-union fractures
- I-Delivery – nanocarrier to deliver drugs and cosmetics to the hair root to treat acne and hair loss
- Immagina Biotechnology – high throughput tools for isolation and analysis of polyribosomes

- Università degli studi di Udine – Research university exploring technology transfer opportunities
- Xenus – topically delivered therapeutic for erectile dysfunction

REGISTER

If you are interested in connecting with any of the companies, please contact the meeting organizer at: robertmg52@gmail.com.

Have questions about Italian Trade Agency Early Stage Life Science Showcase? Contact Italian Trade Agency and MassGlobal Partners

New Cambridge Observer is a publication of the Harris Communications Group, an award-winning pr and marketing firm based in Kendall Square, Cambridge, MA