

Frankenthaler, Picasso at the Clark

On a recent visit to the Clark Art Institute in Williamstown, MA, Cambridge writer Anita Harris was engaged by the synergy of art and nature expressed in the work of Helen Frankenthaler—and of the museum's architecture and its natural setting.