

Loved Lowell Open Studios and Arts Festival

I was wonderfully surprised and impressed by Lowell's open studios—held this weekend in the old milltown about 45 minutes north of Cambridge. I was happy that an exhibit in a downtown gallery focusing on cat subjects did not make me itch. Very much.